

Ancient History GCSE

Learning Journey

Actium and its Aftermath

Cleopatra and Antony

Cleopatra and Caesar

Cleopatra 69-30 BCE

Conflict of the Orders

Foundation of the Republic

The Roman Kings

Aeneas and Romulus

The Foundations of Rome 753-440 BCE

Alexander and Philip II

The Conquest of Persia

Was Alexander murdered?

Y11

Alexander the Great 356-323 BCE

Xerxes and the Greeks

The Persian Empire 559-465 BCE

Darius the Great

Cambyses II

Cyrus the Great

Y10

The Ancient History curriculum is designed to open your mind to other cultures and ways of thinking.

You will develop your skills as a writer and thinker, learning how to read sources critically and construct a convincing argument.

You will also engage with the key moments, personalities and ideas that shaped the history of Europe and the Middle East.

Knowledge and understanding of the ancient world from Y7 Rome and Y8 Athens.
Skills from Years 7 to 9 History.