

Today, a jury found Kenny, a local man , guilty of robbery in a landmark case.

In the middle of night, Kenny broke into Shavington Academy to steal the head teacher's car.

"I only wanted to get better at more cars!" Kenny was reported to have said during the trial.

Chief prosecutor C. White had the following statement to make, "After careful consideration by the jury and a team of highly trained specialists, Kenny was found guilty of robbery. He will now serve a lengthy sentence. What a waste for a man who despite his flaws, had a promising future."

The case was solved by a team of detectives who followed clues left behind at the scene of the crime.
